

HONORING A SOUTH CAROLINA HERO.
INSPIRING GENERATIONS.

ROBERT SMALLS

A LEGACY OF COURAGE AND LEADERSHIP

From enslaved to elected, Robert Smalls defied the odds to secure freedom for himself and others and went on to shape our state and nation. His legacy continues to inspire.

HERO

He courageously piloted the USS Planter to freedom.

PUBLIC SERVANT

He served in the South Carolina State House and U.S. Congress.

CHAMPION FOR ALL

He fought for education, voting rights and opportunities for all.

HELP BUILD HIS LEGACY

Your gift will support the Robert Smalls Monument on the South Carolina State House grounds.

DONATE TODAY: admin.sc.gov/robertsmalls

WHY THIS MONUMENT MATTERS

The monument will honor Robert Smalls' extraordinary life and lasting impact on South Carolina and the nation. Placed on the State House grounds, it ensures that future generations remember a man who turned courage into change.

HONORS HISTORY

Recognizes a journey from enslavement to freedom, heroism to leadership and exclusion to public service.

INSPIRES FUTURE GENERATIONS

A powerful reminder that one person can create lasting change.

CELEBRATES SOUTH CAROLINA

Serves as a symbol of freedom, leadership and opportunity on the State House grounds.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

The Robert Smalls Monument Commission is guiding the design and location of the monument on the South Carolina State House grounds and accepting donations to support the project.

WAYS TO GIVE

To receive a donation receipt, provide your name and address. Anonymous donations are also accepted.

GIVE ONLINE

Scan the QR code or visit admin.sc.gov/robertsmalls to donate using electronic check, debit or credit card.

GIVE BY MAIL

Make checks payable to:
The Robert Smalls Monument Commission
South Carolina Department of Administration
1200 Senate St., Suite 409
Columbia, SC 29201

BE PART OF HISTORY. HONOR THE LEGACY.
HELP BUILD THE MONUMENT.
DONATE TODAY.